

CO-CREATING LANDSCAPE CHANGE IN THE GREEN TRANSITION

Programme overview

Monday 24 Feb
13.00-14.00	Welcome Jeppe Bruus (S), Stine Krøijer (UCPH) & Katherine Richardson (UCPH)
14.30-16.00	Parallel workshop sessions Storytelling as a tool for landscape co-creation Kathrine Dalsgaard (UCPH/Danish Nature Agency) & Rasmus Hansen (Randers Municipality) Farmers' protest and the farmer as nature manager Esther Peeren (University of Amsterdam) & Jørgen Bidstrup (Danish Nature Agency) Citizen collaboration in landscape planning and management projects – successes and failures Lone S. Kristensen (UCPH), Laura Tolnov Clausen (University of Agder/DTU) & Hans Peter Hansen (AU)
16.30-17.30	Keynote: The Place That Sinks When Stepped on: on Reimagining Wetlands and Agricultural Landscapes in Turkey and Beyond Caterina Scaramelli (Boston University)
Tuesday 25 Feb
8.15-9.15	Keynote: Transformative change: From agri-environmental measures to social-ecological networks Judith Westerink (Wageningen University & Research)
9.45-11.15	Parallel workshop sessions The transformative potential of storytelling Catalina Ortiz (UCL) & Nina Toudal Jessen Public contestations in biodiversity conservation Sara Iversen (AU) & Rasmus Ejrnæs (AU) Designing collaborative landscape planning processes – the benefits of external input Maggie Roe (Newcastle University), Rikke Munck (UCPH), Jørgen Primdal (UCPH) & Jørgen Jørgensen (Viborg Municipality)
11.45-12.45	Roundtable discussion Sigrid Friis (MEP Danish Social Liberal Party), Thyge Nygaard (Danish Society for Nature Conservation), Danish Agriculture & Food Council, Michael Kjerkegaard (Organic Denmark) & Signe Skjoldborg Brieghel (UCPH). Moderator: Marie Sæhl (Dagbladet Information).
12.45-13.00	Concluding remarks